Jim Nusser

Successfully planned a professional development conference (canceled due to the Winter COVID spike) that included involvement of new members on the conference planning committee and strengthened a relationship with a local SHRM chapter (Society of Human Resource Managers).

Chapter Goals from 2021:

- Plan and execute a successful safety conference, currently scheduled to be in-person on March 7 & 8, 2022.
- Increase member involvement, including at monthly meetings and by having members who haven't previously been involved participate in chapter leadership or in the conference planning committee.

Central Valley Chapter

- Brad Perry, Chapter President
- 2021-2022 Chapter achievement:
- Increased Membership by 5%

Achievement: Successfully hosted six in-person or hybrid general membership events. One more technical session and Pac Rim are scheduled.

Inland Northwest ASSP Chapter

David Johnson, President/CSP/ESQ

Acheivement: Our Chapter has had a new and informative speaker every month throughout the year. We have kept our attendance numbers at between 15 and 30 for each meeting, overcoming the challenges posed by Covid restrictions. We were also able to conduct an OSHA training, and slightly bolster our Chapter's financial position.

Goal: Have technical meetings planned and scheduled at least three months in advance.

For the most part we have met this goal. It has been slipping the past few months. We did have the opportunity to hear from Safety & Health professionals from around the world which brought a unique perspective to our profession.

Return to Face-to-Face Chapter Programming Guidance

Royal Willard
Regional Vice President
Region 1

Society Recommendation

Each chapter should continue to exercise its own best judgment about returning to face-to-face programming, taking into consideration the current spread of COVID-19 in your area, local guidelines and regulations, and risks and benefits to attendees and the chapter.

Proceeding With In-Person Events

Smaller events: follow CDC and OSHA guidance

Larger events: additional physical distancing options

Communicate clearly and frequently

Require COVID-19 waiver and release

Additional Considerations

Is an in-person event the best option?

What are the current local, state and federal guidelines?

ROC Planning

ROC Planning

■ Fall ROC 2022

- We will need to consider a location for this event if considering face-to-face
- Hawaii may be an option to align with Pac-Rim Conference
- We can travel for one ROC meeting this upcoming chapter year

■ Spring ROC 2023

- We will need to consider a location for this event
- This would be a virtual event if the fall ROC is in person
